WHOLESALE HOUSE ADOPTED WOMAN CLAIMS WARD BISHOP NEW OYSTER SHIPPING PLAN.

Two carloads of Ben Davis and Missouri Fippins apples arrived yesterday on the No. 1 Morris alley, 523 West Fourth market from Colorado and are quoted at $1.25 a bushel. They are much larger North street, are a woman, deserted than the Utah apples and are marketed by her husband, and five children, the all through the neighboring states. They are free from worms and are solid to months old. They are all in want the core. Utah apples are plentiful and of food and fuel, so much in fact that are being retailed for 35 and 40 cents a peck. A carload of bananas and a large shipment of cocoanuts also reached the market vesterday Oninces are ripering ily may be able to eke out an existmarket yesterday. Quinces are ripening fast and the market received a large few days more. Then there will be no supply from northern Utah. There were no changes made in vegetables.

The wholesale houses have adopted a new plan for shipping in their oysters, and it has proven to be satisfactory. The oysters are put in five gallon carriers, which are sealed and then packed in a heavy metal lined box and covered with ice. A regular shipment of 200 gallons are sent to Salt Lake daily.

Salmon and halibut were scarce yespeal to the public for aid.

Salmon and halibut were scarce yesterday but a shipment is expected to arrive today. There is plenty of black bass on the market, but trout are getting scarce and the shipments are being cut down every day. There were no changes, made on the market yesterday.
